Chiangmai Thailand 2012

News No. : 14/2013

Date : 22th November 2012

Subject : MOU Between the Revenue Department of Thailand and Inland Revenue Board of Malaysia

Tan Sri Dr. Mohd Shukor Mahfar Chief Executive Officer of Inland Revenue Board of Malaysia and Dr. Satit Rungkasiri, Director-General of the Revenue Department of Thailand signed a Memorandum of Understanding on capacity building and technical cooperation today (21 November 2012). This event took place during the 42nd SGATAR Meeting in Chiang Mai, Thailand. The MOU establishes a mutually beneficial cooperation with a view to fostering a closer working relationship and improving tax administrations between the two countries in the following areas:

1. Capacity building by providing training programmes which include study visits, existing programmes or programmes jointly organised with other organisations.
2. Discussion on compliance issues arising from audit, investigation and cross border transactions. This discussion could be made twice a year alternately in Malaysia and Thailand.
3. Exchange of officers for technical development whereby officers could learn from each other's organisation for a period up to 6 months.

This MOU will be effective for a period of three years beginning from 21 November 2012.
