

Revenue Department News

News No. : 1/2014

Date : 15th October 2013

Subject : RD Camp season 6 “The more you give, the more you get”

.....

Today (15th October 2013), Mr. Sutthichai Sungkamanee, Director-General of the Revenue Department presided over the opening ceremony of RD Camp Season 6 of which the main objective is to cultivate the mind set of generosity “The more you give, the more you get” for young generations and students from 10 institutions nationwide in order to develop them as our major force to develop our country as well as to prepare them before entering the work force. After the selection, there are 15 teams of total 60 participants in RD camp at Pung-Waan Resort & Spa, Kanchanaburi province. The Revenue Department focused on the involvement of the participants in order to "Change people who can think to become a good thinking person" under the concept “The more you give, the more you get” pointing out the benefits of taxation, cultivating a good attitude towards taxes, the responsibility of good citizen to serve the country, sacrifices, and social responsibility through a competition of short advertisement such as radio spots, printed medias, and backdrops to win scholarships of more than 200,000 THB.

.....

Nuthari/Report
Kiraphat/Coordinator