Subject : The Revenue Department in cooperation with Land and Houses Bank (Plc.) in providing a new channel of tax payment services to online tax filer

Today (7th August 2015) Ms. Chujit Thanapanpada, Acting Principal Advisor on Information and Communication Technology of the Revenue Department, and Mr. Thanee Palawong, First Executive Vice President Information Technology Group of Land and Houses (L&H) Bank (Plc.) have signed a memorandum of understanding on tax payment services through L&H Bank's ATM in the Pra-Utain 3 Conference Room, 2nd Floor of the Revenue Department, witnessed by executives of both sides. L&H Bank (Plc.) is the 30th organization that cooperates with the Revenue Department in providing tax payment services for all tax types to online tax filers 24 hours via the Bank's ATM. And soon, this service will be additionally supported by a newly created IT system so called "LH Bank Speedy". Such an excellent service will be a new channel to online tax filers in addition to the services currently provided by the Bank over 122 counters nationwide and hopefully it will help taxpayers to be more convenient.
