Subject : The Revenue Department was awarded as an outstanding service provider of SET in the City 2012 exhibition

The Revenue Department won an outstanding service provider to investors of the SET in the City 2012 exhibition awarded by the Stock Exchange of Thailand. The award winning ceremony was held at the Plaza Athenée Bangkok, A Royal Meridien Hotel on 18th December 2012.

Dr. Satit Rungkasiri, Director General of the Revenue Department, revealed that "Once again our Department has succeeded in service dedicated to the public. This time we have been rewarded as “an outstanding service provider to the investor or shareholder” of the SET in the City 2012 exhibition held by the Stock Exchange of Thailand. Government sector and private sector have opened a lot of booths at the exhibition. The Department booth is set up under the theme of “Service with Smile”. Tax experts are available to answer every single tax question to all investors and shareholders with a smile in order to create friendship and to make them become voluntary taxpayers. The service with a smile strategy can totally impress the investors who visit the Department booth”.
