News No. : 32/2013
Date : 1st February 2013
Subject : The Revenue Department grants extension for taxpayers to use 10 digits tax identification number (TIN) until 31st July 2013

The Revenue Department grants extension for the use of 10 digits TIN to 13 digits to 31st July 2013 onwards

Many registered entrepreneurs have informed us that a lot of old documents concerning of the 10 digits TIN still have not been used to avoid unnecessary expenses the Revenue Department allows registered entrepreneurs to change the 10 digits on the form to 13 digits TIN together with a signature or certified stamp until 31st July 2013. However, this extension does not include the use of 10 digits TIN, the use of tax ID for tax filing for those who has the duty to pay taxes, those who has the duty to withhold withholding tax and those who has the duty to submit withholding tax.
