

Revenue Department News

News No. : 35/2014

Date : 17th July 2014

Subject : The Revenue Department gives diploma and musical instruments for schools that participates in the activity “Music builds great young minds” for the second year

Today (8th July 2014) Ms. Chanatip Weerasubpong, Deputy Director General Acting as Principal Advisor on Tax Base Management of the Revenue Department presided over the ceremony where the Revenue Department gives diploma and musical instruments to representatives from 27 schools that had been selected to participate in the project “You are a good citizen with tax compliance 2014” with the activity under the theme “Music builds great young minds”. She also gave a statement congratulating them on such event. The Revenue Department aims to create good moral in young minds through music in order to build great social responsibility in the future. The ceremony was held at The Tawana Bangkok Hotel.

Pirat/Translator

Kiraphat/Editor