

Revenue Department News

News No. : 36/2014

Date : 29th July 2014

Subject : The Revenue Department's press conference on the RD Camp Season 7 project
"Thoughtful thinking, the way to collect tax for nation development"

Today (29th July 2014) Mr. Prasong Poontaneat, Director-General of the Revenue Department, presided over the opening ceremony of the RD Camp Season 7 project under the theme "Thoughtful thinking, the way to collect tax for nation development" at the Hall of the RD Headquarters Building on the 1st Floor. The purpose of this project is to raise good conscience and attitude of how to be good taxpayers for young students. Students whose qualifications meet requirements of the department can join the Camp to learn tax through many activities under the theme of "Thoughtful thinking, the way to collect tax for nation development", and they will have chances to undergo real-life business cases. Moreover, there will be a shirt design contest among participating students, the income of the sales of these shirts will be distributed to our society in many ways.

The Revenue Department would like to persuade all students who are undergraduates and 25 years old or less to apply for the RD Camp Season 7 project from 29th July to 25th September 2014. For more information, please visit RD website at <http://www.rdcamp.com/season7> or <http://www.facebook.com/rdcamp7> or send an email to rdcamp.7@gmail.com.

Chatchadaporn/Translator
Kiraphat/Editor