

Revenue Department News

News No. : 37/2012

Date : 3rd May, 2012

Subject : The Revenue Department is moving forward to educating university students (RD go Campus) 2nd year.

The Revenue Department is taking another step forward by educating the university students (RD go Campus) for the second year. This year, the programme laid out to be in the form of practical training "Increase potential and raise the level of taxation understanding prior to the entrance to the business system for public and private universities students", starting from the University of the Thai Chamber of Commerce. On 30th April 2012, Mr. Sutthichai Sungkamanee, the Deputy Director - General was the Chairman of the certificates presentation ceremony granting to 97 students who have completed the above training programme at Pra-Utain 2 room, 2nd Floor, the Revenue Department building. After this, the Revenue Department will continue to educate university students who have signed an agreement to participate in RD go Campus programme.

Mr. Sutthichai Sungkamanee, the Deputy Director - General said that "Educating university students before going into business is the stimulation of learning process simultaneously planting the awareness and positive attitude towards the voluntary tax compliance into people's mind. This will create a sustainable tax base for Thailand. Moreover, this is the preparation of Thai personnel to be more competitive in the international community"

Should any institutions be interested in participating in the RD go Campus scheme, please contact the Office of Human Resources, The Revenue Department at telephone 0 2272 9792

Nuthari /Report
Kiraphat/Coordinator