

Revenue Department News

News No. : 44/2013

Date : 2nd April 2013

Subject : Filing of Por.Ngor.Dor.91 tax form can be done via smart phone

The Revenue Department is promoting its new “RD Smart Tax” ios application (iPhone/iPad) for personal income tax filing of form Por.Ngor.Dor.91 to correspond with the lifestyle of younger generations. The application is downloadable through the App Store for free and the deadline for filing personal income tax through the application is 9th April 2013.

Dr.Satit Rungkasiri, Director-General of the Revenue Department, has revealed that “The Revenue Department launched the RD Smart Tax smart phone application to enhance the filing service for our taxpayers since 29th March 2013. The application is among the Department’s continuing efforts to develop taxpayer service innovations. We understand the lifestyle and the needs of younger generations who prefer things that are modern, convenient and fast. Taxpayers who wish to use the new service can search in the App Store for “RD Smart Tax” and download the application into your smart phone. With the well-designed application, personal income tax filing is easier because taxpayers will be taken through the process automatically along with the filing guidance. Taxpayers can be assured of maximum security in addition to being able to check their tax refund status. For e-filing, the filing deadline is extended to 9th April 2013.”

Atitharnbhorn/Report
Kiraphat/Coordinator