Subject : The Revenue Department is moving forward to the project
"Third Page of Papers for the Blinds Year 2"

Today (22nd April 2013) Ms. Wanee Thasanamontien, Principal Advisor on Strategic Tax Administration (Energy Industry), presided over the opening ceremony of the project "Third Page of Paper: double recycling" in collaboration with Foundation for The Blind in Thailand Under The Royal Patronage of Her Majesty The Queen to initiate the campaign for all revenue officers across the country to use all the two pages of the paper sheet and giving out creative learning materials from the used calendars to blinds by having the private sector to support such a social responsibility project.

The project "Third Page of Papers for the Blinds Year 2" is an activity that the Revenue Department held for a second year in collaboration with Foundation for The Blind in Thailand Under The Royal Patronage of Her Majesty The Queen campaigning the revenue officers to use both sides of papers and give away the used papers to the foundation, it can be adapted to the braille learning materials. This year's event includes the invention of the learning materials from the used calendars to the blinds, those with the eyes imperfections and those with learning disabilities. This project is another activity that the Revenue Department helps reduce global warming as well as the e-filings program which has been very successful and this project can reduce the huge amount of paper used every year.

This project will create a sense of participation among officers and the awareness in the use of resources (paper) at a reasonable cost and for the benefit of themselves and the society. Besides, this is also a joint activity to honour His Majesty The King on the occasion of his 85th Birthday Anniversary, Her Majesty The Queen 80th Birthday Anniversary, and His Royal Highness Crown Prince 60th Birthday Anniversary.

Those who are interested in the project can contribute the two-page used paper at the Revenue Department and the Regional Office countrywide from now until 30th September 2013. There are several private sector partners in this project namely: Major Cineplex Group PLC., ICHITAN Group Co.,Ltd., The Siam Cement Public Company Limited, and Big C Supercenter Public Co.,Ltd.
