News No. : 53/2012
Date : 6th July, 2012
Subject : The Revenue Department grants tax exemption for foreign movie stars

Dr.Satit Rungkasiri, Director-General of the Revenue Department, has revealed that “On 29th June, 2012 Royal Decree No. 289 (B.E. 2012) has been in effect. The law grants personal income tax exemption for foreign movie stars who earn income from foreign movies shot in Thailand and approved by the National Committee for Movie and Video. The five-year exemption is applicable to income earned in the year 2011 to 2015 in order to attract foreign film producers to Thailand. Moreover, the movie can also help promote tourism in Thailand.”
