

Revenue Department News

News No. : 8/2014

Date : 19th December 2013

Subject : 'Taxpayers Recognition' Honour award for good decent conscience taxpayers

---

Today (19th December 2013), the Revenue Department arranges a ceremony for granting 'Taxpayers Recognition' for the Year 2012. An announcement to praise taxpayers of the year is categorized into individual persons for 12 persons and corporate entities for 128 entities, totaling 140 items from all over the country. This event aims to promote quality and regain sense of duty to pay tax correctly, and to have a role model for the society. Mr. Kittiratt Na-Ranong, Deputy Prime Minister and Ministry of Finance is a president for the award granting.

The 'Taxpayers Recognition' award granting ceremony is held to praise quality taxpayers that have responsibility on paying tax and promotes the taxpayers to be proud of performing their duties, including realizing, quality of doing good deed and have a responsibility for the society. This is one of the strategies to create the sustainable tax base and boost up the efficiency of the Revenue Department in term of tax collection. Every taxpayer who are nominated must qualify for conditions specified by the Revenue Department.

---

Pichan/Translator

Kiraphat/Editor