Subject : Donating agents to help flood victims in the south

As the Revenue Department announced that the companies or juristic partnerships or other juristic persons which wish to be donating agents to help flood victims in the south must register with the Revenue Department.

The companies or juristic partnerships or other juristic persons which wish to be donating agents must operate as mediums that transparently pass money donations and providing flood relief item donations to flood victims. They must register with the Revenue Department by using “Donating agents to help flood, windstorm, conflagration or other natural disasters victims in Thailand since 1st January 2011 application form” approved by Deputy Director-General of the Revenue Department (via Director of Bureau of Tax Supervision and Audit Standards or Director of Area Revenue Office) every time before opening for donation or after receiving donation during occurrence of flood, windstorm, conflagration or other natural disasters or within 1 month after the end of those flood, windstorm, conflagration or other natural disasters. For the juristic persons that already registered as donating agents of previous flood or other natural disasters still need to also submit the application form with the Revenue Department to be donating agents for this time.
