

Revenue Department News

News No. : 53/2020

Date : 25th August 2020

Subject : The Revenue Department added channel to file Disclosure Form by allowing taxpayers to upload excel file

The Revenue Department introduced a new channel for taxpayers to file Disclosure Form for the more convenient, faster and easier means by allowing the upload of excel files.

Mrs. Sommai Siriudomset, Principal Advisor on Strategic Tax Administration (Energy Industry) acting as a spokesperson of the Revenue Department, revealed that “The Revenue Department has extended the deadline for the filing of Disclosure Form for company and juristic partnership (outside of SET), which has the deadline to file P.N.D.50 on April to August 2020 and is a related company or juristic partnership with gross income in financial statement not less than 200 million baht during the accounting period which P.N.D.50, to 31st August 2020. As of today, the Revenue Department has added a channel for filing Disclosure Form online by uploading excel file on the Revenue Department website, www.rd.go.th >> e-filing menu.”

The Spokesperson added that “Tax from Home allows taxpayers to do business easier and is a way to do tax transaction in a way of Social Distancing, without face-to-face meeting, no handling of documents, no touching of bank notes or checks. Therefore, the Revenue Department invites the Thai people to cooperate using TAX from Home to support Thailand to survive COVID-19 safely forever.”

For further information, please contact RD Intelligence Center, Tel. 1161 or at Area Revenue Offices nationwide.
